MISS ROGERS FIRST;

MISS HARRIS SECOND

Result of the Times-Union's Voting Contest—Miss Harris Received Over 25,000 Votes

(Tampa Tribune.)

Jacksonville, Dec. 7.—The Times-Union's voting contest for the selection of commissioners to represent that paper at the St. Louis Exposition next year, closed tonight at midnight, and the final count was made. The result, which will be announced in the Times-Union tomorrow morning, is as follows, the first named young ladies being chosen commissioners and the second assistant commissioners:

West Coast

Miss Agnes Rogers, St. Petersburg, 30,322; Miss Sara Harris, Ocala, 25,408.

East Coast

Miss Lillian Thomas, Jacksonville, 114,768; Miss Edith Pye, Jacksonville, 84,432.

Middle and West

Miss Mamie Randall, Sampala, 20,394; Miss Lula Ulmer Bird, Monticello, 18,413.

The closest race was in the West Coast division, where Miss Rogers and Miss Harris remained close together throughout the contest. Miss Harris led Sunday morning, but Miss Rogers again gained the lead on Sunday night's count. In today's voting Miss Rogers got nearly 6000 votes, and finished nearly 5000 ahead.

HE FOUND A CURE

R. H. Foster, 318, S. 2nd St., Salt Lake City, writes: "I have been bothered with dyspepsia or indigestion for 21 years, have tried many doctors without relief, but I have found a cure in Herbine. I recommend it to all my friends who are afflicted that way, and it is curing them, too." 50c. at the Anti-Monopoly Drugstore.

POLICE AND OTHER PEOPLE

Editor Star: I am a timid man and dislike to awaken antipathy. But since the police have been somewhat discussed in the papers of late, and nobody killed, I make bold to voice my little story. I was at the minstrel performance a few nights ago. Both our night policemen were there also, during at least the latter half of the performance. I know a policeman's lot is not all peaches and cream and I would not deprive one of any merited pleasure. But who guards the town on such occasions, and what need is there of a policeman at such an affair, where at least 99 per cent. of the people present are law abiding and bent only on enjoying themselves. I have been at the opera house many times and never saw any reason for a policeman being there, let alone the whole force on duty. Respectfully,
Second Ward Voter.

STARTLING EVIDENCE

Fresh testimony in great quantity is constantly coming in, declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds to be unequalled. A recent expression from T. J. McFarland, Bentonville, Va., serves as example. He writes: "I had bronchitis for three years and doctored all the time without being benefited. Then I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and a few bottles wholly cured me." Equally effective in curing all Lung and Throat troubles, Consumption, Pneumonia and Grip. Guaranteed by the Anti-Monopoly Drugstore. Trial bottles free. Regular sizes, 50c. and $1.

County Commissioner Wartmann of Citra, speaking of the cold snap and its effect on the orange trees and the fruit on the same in his section, said they passed safely through the ordeal unhurt. The mercury registered 24 degrees above zero, the coldest night. Mr. Wartmann had heard from his foreman on his Orange river grove above Fort Myers, 400 miles south of Ocala, who said the mercury registered 25 degrees.

THAT THROBBING HEADACHE

Would quickly leave you if you used Dr. King's New Life Pills. Thousands of sufferers have proved their matchless merit for Sick and Nervous Headaches. They make pure blood and build up your health. Only 25c. Money back if not cured. Sold by the Anti-Monopoly Drugstore.

NEWBERN-MILLER

A Brilliant Wedding at St. Johns Church, Cotton Plant

The marriage of Miss Minnie N. Miller to Mr. W. Bert Newbern Sunday night at St. Johns church, Cotton Plant was a social event that attracted great interest and a large attendance. The beautiful little Methodist church never presented a more attractive appearance than it did that night, with its wreaths, garlands and roses, entwined around the altar and chancel railing. Wreaths of holly, illumined with white roses decorated the arches that were placed at the ends of the aisles. The bridal party stood under arches of the same decorations.

Messrs. James and Joseph Hudgens acted as ushers, indispensable adjuncts to all Cotton Plant hymeneal events.

Master Raymond Newbern, brother of the groom, presided at the organ and played the wedding march as the ushers preceded the bridal procession, consisting of Mr. Lee Newbern and Miss Lizzie Newbern, brother and sister of the groom, followed by the groom, with his fair fiancée leaning on his arm.

The bride was beautifully gowned in white silk, trimmed with silk fibre lace. She bore in her hand a lovely bouquet of white roses, while the bridesmaid carried a bouquet of pink roses. The bouquets were certainly beautiful, the skilled handiwork of Mr. Heinz of the Ocala Greenhouse, and won the admiration of all.

Hon. Henry W. Long, notary, met them at the altar, and in a most impressive manner read the Methodist marriage ceremony, and pronounced Mr. Bert W. Newbern and Miss Minnie N. Miller man and wife.

The invited guests then proceeded to the home of the bride's father, where a reception was held and congratulations extended; after which the marriage feast was announced, and it was a feast indeed, to which the following named persons sat down and did ample justice to the good things spread before them:

Mr. and Mrs. Newbern, bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. C. Y. Miller, parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Newbern parents of the groom, Mr. Lee Newbern and Miss Lizzie Newbern, brother and sister of the groom, Messrs. James and Joseph Hudgens, Miss Pearl Avera, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Long, Mrs. Elizabeth Miller, grandmother of the bride, sat at the table of honor. The others were Mr. and Mrs. Hollandsworth and daughter, Anna, of Dunnellon, Misses Lucile and Belle Bates, granddaughters of Mr. Long, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Sanders and wife, Dunnellon, Miss Mary Love of Jacksonville, niece of Mrs. Long, Raymond Newbern, brother of the groom, Miss Effie Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Johnson of Leroy, Mr. and Mrs. J. Munroe Smith, Mr. Walter Ray, Mr. E. P. Thagard, Ocala, Messrs. Chas. and Will Veal and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. Will Veal, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Newcomb Barco, Mrs. L. S. Black and Miss Alice Black, Mr. W. P. Hayne, Mr. and Mrs. Bittinger and daughter and Miss Louise Moody of Ocala. Mr. and Mrs. Holder of Dunnellon took in the wedding but returned home after the ceremony.

After the bountiful meal had satiated the appetites of all, and many beautiful wedding gifts inspected, the cutting of the wedding cake by the lovely bride and the fair maidens and matrons present elicited the greatest interest. Mrs. Charles Veal sliced the gold thimble, Miss Anna Hollandsworth, the dime, and Miss Newbern, the ring. The report was circulated that somewhere within the tempting looking loaf of sweetness rested a $5 gold piece, and all were on the quiver to see who would slice it, but it failed to materialize.

The bride, assisted by the Misses Bates, rendered some very excellent music on the new piano, a bridal gift.

Mr. Newbern, the groom, is a young man of excellent character, and is the popular and efficient railroad agent at Leroy.

Everybody in the Leroy and Cotton Plant sections know the amiable bride, and admire and love her for her kind-hearted and sweet disposition, and was known the country round as the belle of that section.

The newly married couple will spend their honeymoon at the home of the bride and then go to their home at Leroy.

It was 10 o'clock ere all the invited guests departed for home, leaving their best wishes with the newly wed-

HANDICAPPED.

The man who started to run a race in chains and fetters would be visibly handicapped. No one would expect him to succeed. The man who runs the race of life when his digestive and nutritive organs are diseased is equally handicapped. In the one case his strength is over-weighted, in the other it is under-weighted. Success demands a balance all else a sound stomach.

Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. When this is done food is perfectly digested and assimilated and the body receives strength in the only way in which strength can be given—by the nutrition derived from digested and assimilated food.

"The praise I would like to give your 'Golden Medical Discovery' I cannot utter in words or describe with pen," writes James B. Ambrose, Esq., of 120½ Mifflin Street, Huntingdon, Pa. "I was taken with what our physicians here said was indigestion. I doctored with the best around here and found no relief. I wrote to you and you sent me a question blank to fill out, and I did so, and you then advised me to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took three bottles and I felt so good that I stopped, being cured. I have no symptoms of gastric trouble or indigestion now."

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, sent free on receipt of stamps to cover expense of mailing only. Twenty-one one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
